Number of sessions:	1	Fee:	£60
Course queries:	If you have a query or are unsure whether the course is right for you please get in touch with the Adult Learning Team who will be happy to contact the tutor on your behalf.

About the course

Discover the exciting processes of printmaking, creating prints using the Intaglio techniques of etching. You will learn how to prepare a metal plate, using 'safe' etching, ink up and print through a printing press.

What will the course cover and how will it be taught?

You will produce prints from metal (aluminium) plates using copper sulphate, 'safe etching'. Learn how to –

- Prepare a metal plate using resists
- Ink the plate ready for printing
- Print through printing press

Tutor led demonstrations, discussion, example work and handouts will guide you through the process.

Individuals will be supported throughout. Participants are encouraged to experiment with the emphasis very much on individual practical experience. There will be opportunities to discuss results individually.

What do I need to bring with me?

All equipment and materials supplied. Print making is messy so wear old clothes ! You are advised to bring-

- An apron or old shirt to protect clothes.
- Gloves – latex or plastic

Be aware that inks are oil based and some materials contain solvents, which may affect those with certain medical conditions.

Bring ideas! If you have images, photographs or sketches that you would like to work from please bring these.

Please bring a pen, notebook and your glasses, if you need them.

What can I do next?

The Brewery has an excellent range of learning experiences with the emphasis on enjoyment, social interaction and personal development.
