About the course

This is a course for complete beginners who have no previous knowledge of the language. The course will include the introduction to speaking and listening in Spanish. You will learn to understand and use basic language required for holiday and everyday situations. You will also improve your cultural awareness of the country, i.e. where the language is spoken and build a firm foundation for future language study. You will understand basic rules of communication build up a wide vocabulary and understand some basic rules of grammar. You will learn some essential and general language (e.g. open and closed questions, simple negatives, common courtesies, personal information, common verbs, adjectives, adverbs of time, prepositions and conjunction, numbers and use of dictionary etc.).

This course is a continuation from the autumn; if you would like to join please contact the Brewery so you can be put in touch with the tutor to assess your level.

What will the course cover and how will it be taught?

We will cover 5 basic topics to enable you to get by in Spanish. Personal information, shopping, going to a bar and restaurant, travelling and booking a room in a hotel. We will also cover the present tense, and the use of masculine/feminine, singular and plural agreement.
