About the course

Learn how to write for the spoken word and express yourself confidently. Viewing performance poet examples, experimenting with and developing forms and practical sessions. Students will have a creative and confidence-boosting experience. Perhaps you may have already started writing a few pieces.

What will the course cover and how will it be taught?

The course will be a mixture of three things. Viewing, listening and reading out great examples from the nineteen sixties up to the present; writing, experimenting and developing the student's own work and of course – learning how to perform confidently, clearly and with expression.

The course will be mainly practical but there will be hand-outs, short videos, and listening to recordings. We will be doing a lot of writing, editing and practising delivery. There will be group discussions and critical analysis.

What do I need to bring with me?

Please bring a pen, notebook and your glasses, if you need them.
